Notes:

Once again this month, the biggest news has little to do with the release of a tape. A new company (Kitty Media) has formed (not to be confused with Kitty Enterprises, a Japanese company), and like the other companies, their products will be available through us. From what we've heard, this new company is going to be focusing on adult product at least initially. We've got more live-action releases from AnimEigo's Samurai Cinema line, a new installment of Burn Up W! from AD Vision, three new tapes from the popular Dragonball TV series, and a new Tenchi Muyo OVA installment. More Votoms debut this month as well, and if you're looking to save a bit, the entire multivolume series is available immediately in the form of a collected "brick".

JEFF'S PICK(S) OF THE MONTH

Here's an easy one: it's got to be that new Chirality comic from Satoshi Urushihara ... the creator of Plastic Little. Even without seeing one before making this recommendation, it's going to be a hands-down winner in a comic world otherwise populated by American artists who are trying real hard to get what this guy has naturally. It's an adult book, though, so be careful!
